FAT MAN HOLDS NINE GAMBLERS

Chicago, March 6.—One man who was too fat to get through a hole in the wall caused the arrest of himself and nine others today, when the police raided a basement gambling room downtown. When the police came the players fled for a small hole in the rear wall planned for an emergency exit. One escaped and the fat man who was second got stuck, preventing the others from gaining their liberty.

POLITICIAN IN POLICE COURT

Oklahoma City, March 6.—George Crump, Jr., candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, appeared in police court Friday, charged with being intoxicated and causing a disturbance around the Skirvin hotel. He was fined one dollar and costs. The rumpus at the hotel, according to Crump's story, was that he and J. F. Hartwell, a jeweler, quarrelled over payment of money to Hartwell. Crump cursed Hartwell, who hit him. Crump drew a gun but was disarmed by bystanders.

World's a Stage But A Bum Show

Los Angeles, Cal., March 6.—Jacob Isselhard, a former employee of the aquajant general's office in the Philippines, stepped into a down town doorway here today and swallowed a fast working poison. He had taken precautions intended to conceal his identity and signed himself in a suicide note as one "who aimed high but hit low—a poor marksman and a failure."

In another note was written: "All the world's a stage, we the actors, life the people—and it's a bum show. Please don't worry about my identity. Just bury me and accept my thanks."

WRITE STORIES FOR MOVING PICTURE PLAYS

Owing to the large number of new motion picture theatres which are being opened throughout the country, there is offered to the men and women of to-day, a new profession, namely, that of writing moving picture plays. Producers are paying from $25 to $150 for each scenario accepted, upon which they can build a photo play $3500 in six months.

As it only requires a few hours' time to construct a complete play, you can readily see the immense possibilities in this work. One man, who gave the idea a tryout, writes that he earned $3500 in six months. It is possible for an intelligent person to meet with equal success.

One feature of the business which should appeal to everyone, is that the work may be done at home in spare time. No literary ability is required and women have as great an opportunity as men. Ideas for plots are constantly turning up, and may be put in scenario form and sold for a good price.

MRS. CRAIG ENTERTAINED

A number of ladies planned a surprise at the home of Mrs. Elvira Howell one day last week in honor of Mrs. Craig of Oklahoma, who was visiting her. Mrs. Craig nee Miss Celia Johnson, formerly lived here, having taught school in the county a number of years and is quite well known.

Each of the ladies attending took a well filled basket containing all sorts of edibles except meat for they happened to know that Mr. Howell had luckily just butchered, and so, of course, there was plenty of boiled ham and nice fresh sausage and with the other good things a bountiful dinner was served. It was indeed a pleasant reunion of old acquaintances and girlhood friends and many pleasant memories of by gone days were recalled. It proved a delightful day to all present.

The snow which fell in 24 hours on Feb. 12 and 13 was the third heaviest in that space of time in 24 years. Twelve and one-half inches fell in that length of time making a total of fifteen inches on the ground, much to the delight of the young and much to the discomfort of the old.—St Charles Banner-News.
